RUSSIA REPORTED TO BE GIVING WAY

The Casualties About Liao Yang 50,000 to Date.

Mussians Claim They Have Outgeneraled the Japs and Have Them Where They Want Them.

FIGHTING HAS NOT CEASED

Rome, Sept. 3.—A telegram from Tokio states that the casualties at Liao Yang thus far have amounted to 50,000 killed and wounded.

TO ARABIAN LIAO YANG.
St. Petersburg, Sept. 3.—The highest military authorities here admit that it has been decided to abandon Liao Yang unless Gen. Kurapatkin is overwhelmingly successful immediately.

SET FIRE BY SHELLS

St. Petersburg, Sept. 3.—A telegram from Gen. Kurapatkin says: "The capture of Sykhwantouk compelled our retirement on Sakhoukeng. Toward noon Friday our advancing corps was brought into line and raked the enemy's position.
The infantry began to advance Thursday night, and Japanese shells set the railway station on fire within the inner line of our position. Our casualties were insignificant."

STILL RESISTING.

London, Sept. 3.—The Japanese legation gives out an official dispatch related at Tokio from Field Marshal Oyama at Liao Yang. He says, "Our armies are continuing the attack on the right side of the river and occupied the height west of Helying Tai Friday morning. The remainder were routed Saturday. The enemy is still offering some resistance. Outside of Liao Yang our center and left armies are attacking."

JAPANESE REPULSED.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 3.—A dispatch from Gen. Kurapatkin, dated Friday, reads: "The Japanese assaulted and captured a position near Sykhwantouk during the night. This morning the Russian preparations to retake the position. The advance against Gen. Kuroki has also begun, which was met with strong rifle fire from the Japanese center. The attempt of the Japanese to capture Liao Yang railway station was repulsed with great loss."

ACROSS THE RIVER.

London, Sept. 3.—A telegram from St.
Petersburg, states that the greater part of Gen. Kurapatkin's army is now across the Taitsse river. Gen. Kuroki is reported to have captured several Russian positions in the direction of the railway to Mukden.

OUTSIDE THE FORTIFICATIONS.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 3.—The war officials state that the railway station which the Japanese report they set fire before being captured by them, is outside the Liao Yang fortifications.

JAPS CROSS THE RIVER.

Tokio, Sept. 3.—It is believed that Field Marshal Oyama, commanding the forces around Liao Yang, succeeded in crossing the Taitsse river this morning with the main body of the Japanese army. The Russians appear to be concentrating in the neighborhood of Yentai Coal Mines, and it is likely the main fight will occur there.

WAS RUSSIAN STRATEGY.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 3.—No absolute information has reached the war office confirming the reports that Liao Yang has been occupied by the Japanese, but it is positively known that Gen. Kurapatkin decided to withdraw from his positions south of Liao Yang to the north or right bank of the Taitsse river Tuesday night and the orders were actually given. The fact disclosed last night, that the strongest Russian position prepared by Gen. Kurapatkin was not around the town of Liao Yang, as the public had been led to believe, but on the right or north bank of the Taitsse river, was a secret so successfully guarded that not even an intimation of it had leaked out. It is now examined that the Russian commander-in-chief had all along anticipated that the Japanese, when they made their advance on Liao Yang, would pursue the identical tactics which had been so successful in every previous stage of the campaign, while attacking in front would attempt by a wide detour to out-

MEMPHIS VISITED BY A BIG FIRE

Blaze on Front Street Does $800,000 Damage.

German Crown Prince's Engagement
Is Announced—Designers Decline Commission.

SENATOR HOAR IS UNCHANGED

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 3.—Fire on Front street, in the heart of the wholesale district, destroyed property this morning, approximating in value between $800,000 and $1,000,000.

From 1 o'clock until 3 this morning the fight waged between the devastating element and the firemen, with victory at alternating intervals trembling in the balance.

In the rear of the sixth floor of the Oliver-Finole Grocery Company's mammoth building, one of the tallest structures in Memphis, the flames were first seen.

The building on the north of the Oliver-Finole Company, occupied by John Denie's Sons, and stored with lime, was partially crushed beneath a falling wall. Fire quickly communicated to the building, which was wrecked and the contents destroyed.

The building on the south, occupied by the Memphis Paper Company, suffered the same fate. Overtopped by the towering walls of the Oliver-Finole Building the collapse of the south wall of the latter structure partially buried the building and stock of the Paper Company, and almost simultaneously with the collapse flames burst from the rear and front.
The building and stock of W. C. Early Company, wholesale commission merchants, were only partially destroyed.
This adjoins the building of the Memphis Paper Company on the south.

The rear of the building occupied by J. T. Fargason Company, adjoining that of W. C. Early, was burned, causing a heavy loss.

MARRIAGE OF ROYALTY.

Berlin, Sept. 3.—The Tageblatt announces the betrothal of the German Crown Prince Frederick Wilhelm to the Dutchess Celie, of Mecklenburg Schwerin, sister of the reigning grand duke.

SENATOR HOAR HOLDING HIS OWN.

Worcester, Mass., Sept. 3.—Senator Hoar still hangs on to life with a grim persistence. It is thought he is unable to gain but shows no relapse.

According to the laws of gravitation even the high dyer must eventually come down.

Thank the Russian position. This time Gen. Kurapatkin was not caught napping. He was prepared for just what happened, and as soon as he received the Taitsse twenty miles above Liao Yang, and was moving westward. Kurapatkin met the move by throwing his whole army over at night. By this piece of strategy, Kurapatkin, in the opinion of the general staff, gained an immense advantage. His army is concentrated on one side of the river and the road is still open for his retirement northward, while the Japanese armies which must act in unison, are separated by the river which places Kurapatkin in a position to oppose Kuroki with his whole army while Gens. Oku and Nodzu are stranded on the other side, which gives Kurapatkin a possible opportunity to imitate Napoleon's tactics and defeat the opposing forces in detail.

A REPORTED RETREAT.

London, Sept. 3.—A dispatch from St.
Petersburg states that a report reached there that Gen. Kurapatkin is in retreat toward Mukden. The officials of the war department admit that the dispatch was received, but say it is not official.
If Gen. Kurapatkin is retreating they say it is probably due to another effort of the Japanese to flank him from the west.

RUSSIANS GIVING WAY.

Tokio, Sept. 3.—A telegram from the front states that Russians are gradually giving away before Field Marshal Oya-ma's assault. Gen. Kuroki succeeded after desperate fighting, in capturing an eminence overlooking the railway.

CALLED MEETINGS OF BOTH BOARDS

The Mayor Ordered to Pay Out $3,000 of Bond Money.

It Will Be Applied to Purchase of the City Hospital Site On North Fourth Street.

OTHER MUNICIPAL NEWS NOTES

The councilman board and board of aldermen each met last night in called session to take action relative to the city hospital site. It seems there has been some misunderstanding relative to the manner of paying for the ground.
Last night, on motion, it was ordered that the mayor pay $3,000 out of the hospital bond fund, to the Norton heirs on the site.

It was thought that none of the hospital bond money would be used for a site, but the members of the boards believe that the city can now pay the whole thing without trouble.

The hospital building will cost about $22,000, and the other $3,000 of the $25,000 secured for bonds will be applied to paying for the site.

It is understood, in addition, that the city will sell the present city hospital, having already been offered $3,500 for it. Today the mayor and Dr. S. B.
Caldwell, representing the Norton heirs, have been in conference relative to arranging the deed to the site.

The arrangements for the hospital site were completed between Mayor Veiser and Dr. Caldwell and this morning at 11:30 o'clock the deed was filed for record and the city now has the site and can proceed with the work of building.

At last night's meeting it was also ordered that the $250 checks that accompanied bids on the city hospital job, be returned to the unsuccessful contractors. Both boards voted as above.

Mr. S. A. Fowler, of the board of public works, returned this morning from Nashville, where he went on private business. He expects to leave next week for St. Louis to consult regarding the city electric plant, as mentioned in the Sun Thursday.

The board of public works has appointed him to go to St. Louis and consult with an electrical engineer in regard to what is needed here to make the light plant what it should be. After the engineer comes here, looks over the plant and decides what is needed to obtain the results desired by the city, the board will take steps to make arrangements with electrical companies to supply the necessary machinery on the best terms.

The board of public works is also looking for a new and better street sweeper, and has several persons keeping an eye open to buy the best thing that comes along. In addition, bids will be advertised for sweeping the streets by the year to determine which way is cheaper.

The joint finance committee of the general council held a meeting last night and audited the bills that come up before the boards next week. There are accounts amounting to about $9,000 to be paid. The Seagrave company's bill of over $5,000 is not included, and was set aside.

The amount to be paid Attorney J. C.
Flournoy in the telephone compromise was not noted on. It was suggested that he proceed as agent for the city to settle with the telephone company, but this was voted down, the members deciding that the proper way would be to order the company to pay the money into the city treasury and then let the general council settle with the attorney, which was ordered done.

The fee to be paid Hendrick & Miller for assisting the city solicitor was not acted on, as it did not come up.

The committee decided to recommend the payment of half the office rent of the city solicitor, but voted down the proposition to furnish him with a stenographer.

FIFTEEN DEAD

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 3.—A St. Louis & Sanborn car, carrying eighty passengers was hit by a Walsh world's fair Shuttle train today at Sarah street crossing and fifteen persons are known to be dead and others more or less injured. The car was struck by an engine and literally reduced to splinters.

PADUCAH SCHOOLS HAVERAPIDGROWTH

They Are Increasing in Size
Every Year Now.

Applications Come From Many Places For Positions as Teachers.

WORK OF THE SCHOOL BOARD

The board of education is getting everything in shape for the opening of the Paducah public schools a week from Monday. Supt. C. M. Leib is well pleased with the outlook, and thinks the Paducah public schools are entering an era of unprecedented prosperity.

The people are becoming more confident every day that their children can get a good education at home without spending large sums of money to send them to college, and this will help increase the school attendance quite a great deal.

"All that is required," Supt. Leib stated this morning, "is for the people to gain confidence in the schools and this is what we are working after. It is not like it used to be when we took teachers because we could get no others.
We have abundance of the best material obtainable and only the other day did the board get an application from a master of science from the state college at Lexington. When such educational lights as in this instance apply for positions, you must know that the schools are being looked upon with a great deal more respect than formerly. I will say that I believe we will have the most successful season this year in school work than we have ever had.
Parents feel that their children will be properly cared for and will be taught by as skillful and painstaking teachers as if they were sent to private institutions."

The entire corps of teachers was selected some time ago and the only one to definitely resign was Miss Laura T.
Charles, of Lexington, who would have taught in the primary department.
Miss Moore, of Lexington, has been selected by the committee, which met Thursday night, to fill the vacancy, but the board will have to ratify the selection.

One colored teacher, Geo. E. Porter, of the Lincoln building, resigned and the committee recommended Mrs. Maggie Merchant to fill the vacancy.

The phosters are working at the high school and all buildings are being put into shape. The desks shipped from other buildings to the high school, have been put down and the high school will be in readiness before next week has gone.

Supt. Leib is watching the High school department this year with more than ordinary interest. "I want to see just how large a High school we will have," he explained. "You see the Leigh preparatory school has quit business and there were many young men attending who will this year go to the High school, and with all the other pupils who were in the 10th grade last year the attendance will be the largest in the history of the schools, I think."

County Supt. A. M. Ragsdale says herenity schools with a few exceptions are running smoothly.

The Melber school is not running because of the authorities not being able to secure a teacher. The school district No. 25 school is idle, because of the change of location. The Rosington school is also idle, because the teacher, Emerson Jett, resigned and a successor has not been appointed.

Supt. Ragsdale says the schools will be gotten into shape as soon as possible and started up. The No. 25 school will probably not be ready for occupancy before October.

The Lone Oak school, The Western Kentucky College, J. S. Ragsdale, president, will open Monday with about 40 pupils. Every indication points to a successful year.

All the taxes for school district No.
8 which was first levied two years ago for the purpose of building a new school house, are in for this year. The tax is levied every year and two more levies will have to be made before the debt is paid. This morning the total taxes for this year in that district totaled $101.10 with about $100 railroad tax yet to come.

Judge Parker will leave Esopus for St. Louis September 24. No speeches will be made either at St. Louis or en route going or returning.

THE SYMPATHETIC STRIKE MONDAY

Many of the Allied Labor Men to Refuse to Handle Meat

The Switchmen Will All Meet Tomorrow To Decide On a Strike.

NEW AGENTS ARE AUTHORIZED

Chicago, Sept. 3.—At the close of business next Tuesday, every butcher, retail clerk, and meat market delivery driver in the United States affiliated with a labor organization is expected to join in a sympathetic strike by refusing to handle meat which has been labeled "Unfair." The switchmen meet tomorrow night to decide whether or not they go on a sympathetic strike.

TO ASK CONTRIBUTIONS.

Washington, Sept. 3.—The American Federation of Labor will at the request of President Donnelly, at the head of the butchers' strike in Chicago, authorize agents of the strikes to solicit contributions from the allied unions to assist them in their fight.

WATCH MELTED

I. C. Fireman Loses a Fine Time Piece.

Accidentally Jerked It Off Chain and It Flew Into the Furnace.

Joe Hubbard, a fireman on the Tennessee and Cairo districts of the Illinois Central, was in the city yesterday to buy a watch, having lost his in a very peculiar way.

Hubbard runs on train No. 202 between Memphis and Cairo and while throwing coal into the fire box, his hand struck his watch chain, which was hanging down, and the watch was snatched out of his overall pocket.
The strain of the jerk parted the chain from the clothes and into the fire box went the fine time piece.

It was useless to attempt to get the watch as it melted before Hubbard's eyes, and the fireman came here the next day to buy another.

This is one of the very few times a watch has been lost in such a manner.

One was lost the same way by a Louisville division fireman several months ago.

From present indications living expenses in Paducah as well as other cities, will be exceptionally high next winter. The Chicago packers' strike will have the effect of advancing the price of meats, the present high prices of grain indicate high prices in breadstuff, and the announcement was received yesterday by local wholesale grocers of a prospective marked advance in the price of canned goods.

The California Fruit Cannery's Association, which handles 90 per cent. of the pack of the Pacific slope, has since the opening price to the trade was made on June 15 twice announced advances and yesterday wholesale grocery houses in the city received circulars announcing that the association has withdrawn from the market, and will not take orders at any price. This action on the part of the association is claimed, is on account of the short ped Out.

Activity in the Local Y. M. C. A.
Will Begin Early In October.

THE OUTLOOK IS BRIGHT

The board of directors of the Y. M.
C. A. will hold its annual meeting September 13th and much business will be transacted. At this meeting the policy for the year's work will be outlined and adopted and a schedule of the activities in religious, social and physical work presented.

The gymnasium will open on October 1st, for regular classes. There will be business men and boys' classes, two classes a week, and the association management intends to make a feature of athletics this winter.

Saturday afternoon will be "open" and devoted to basket ball games and such exhibitions as will interest outsiders who care to attend and witness the sport.

This winter teams will be organized to play basket ball, volley ball, hand ball, indoor tennis, indoor baseball and such sports, and there will be amusements for all.

Sunday afternoon meetings will be inaugurated again in October and the best speakers in the city will be secured to talk. Evening Bible classes will be organized and also literary and educational clubs formed.

Special quarters will be fitted out for the men and boys' departments and the reading room will be improved and better equipped. About $100 will be expended fixing up this department and it will be made as complete as possible.

The Ladies' Committee will fix up the parlors and see to repairing the building generally.

Social evenings will be held monthly and special attention given to "Sing" socials.

The outlook for a successful year is bright.

Cairo at Clarksville.
Hopkinsville at Vincennes.

With fully three thousand confident spectators to cheer him on, this Bonno, Chief Warrior of the Ray tribe of Red skins, shot the Sips Water Parasites out yesterday afternoon at Wallace park and there is mourning on every hand in Cairo today.

The game started out fast and furious. Bonno striking out the first three men up, and to cap the climax, the Indians completed the 9th inning by a brilliant double play, their second in yesterday's game. The work of the Indians was brilliant and Bonno covered himself with glory, this making the third game he pitched against Cairo in the last series, and the third time during the series he shut the Parasites out. Bonno has pitched a total of 30 innings against the Parasites without them making a score, and allowing them only eight hits for the thirty innings.

Paducah scored the first and sixth innings. In the first Bateman hit a low skipper to Richards, who felled to base and retired him. Bateman got scraped on the hand and took first. Lally was hit hard to Kling, who braved for the ball, but it took a quick, bad bounce over his head and went to the fence, the out field thinking Kling had the ball. Lally made three bags on the hit and Gerard came home. Potts hit hard towards second bag and Kling got to it in time to knock it down, but fumbled. Lally scored, but Kling felled to first in time to retire Potts. Land failed at three and took the bench.

In the 6th inning Bonno met a waist ball and hit for three sacks to right field. Bateman hit to Kling, who fumbled. Bonno scoring and Bateman making second. Gerard sacrificed Bateman to second and Lally popped out to third base. Potts' strikeout retired the Indians and the run-getting.

The Paducah Baseball Club desires to play the Cairo club a post series of games, seven or nine, each team to put up $200, winner take all, and the gate receipts to go to the winner of each game.

Those stands for any other team desiring to enter into this Cairo Paducah series.

JOHN S. RAY.

Manager Paducah Team.

National Commission.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 3.—The National Baseball Commission met at the Grand Hotel here in annual session. Secretary John E. Howe reported the list of players purchased by the National and American Leagues from minor leagues. The National League has purchased fifty-two and the American fifty, making 102 cases for the commission to act on. Brooklyn had the largest list, of twenty-three. Most of the clubs in the minor leagues and some of those in the major leagues were represented.

The adoption of new rules disposed of many of the 102 pending cases of players purchased from minor leagues, notably what was called "the Baltimore lunch," claimed by Hanlon, of Brooklyn. The rules, adopted before the Commission considered any special cases, were intended to prevent all cases of "covering up players." It was stated when copies of these additional rules were handed out to the press and to representatives of minor leagues that there would be "no hiding of players" by major leagues to be returned to minor leagues. Copies of all major league contracts or agreements with players are to be filed with the Commission. No claims will be considered from National Association clubs against drafted players after September 10. The second installment of the draft price will not be paid unless the player has been secured. While the Commission was in executive session during the afternoon the additional rules were earnestly discussed by visiting baseball men.

A Little Dope.

"Scissors" Haas was the chief beef of the Parasites yesterday when the game was over. The Cairo players are willing winners, but mighty sly losers.

Well, Cairo, where is that fellow who had a thousand or two to bet that a team couldn't be pitched in the K. I. T. league that could beat Cairo? Paducah, here at the close of the season with every team playing its best, took five straight, three of the games shut-outs. Cairo didn't make a single score in thirty of the innings. Oh, where is that Cairo club who had $2,000 to stake on Cairo? The Cairo fans can hold up their heads no more this season. Paducah has taken 13 out of 24 games from Cairo, and now has a club that can play all around the fast tanks from Sips-town.

Bonno can also hit, eh?

Goodwin sat on the bench yesterday and laughed.

Land's throwing yesterday was grand.

The Parasites had ginger, but they were clearly outclassed.

Grover Land says "we intend to take all 12 games on the road."

Freeman will pitch about Sunday.

There were over 800 paid admissions yesterday and for every paid admission possibly there were from three to four ladies. This outclassed anything for work-day attendance in class D leagues.

It beat most of Cairo's Sunday games.

The Cairo horseshoe link is broken. Paducah's lost link has been again ed.

Ans. Bateman is erecting a permanent pole in Wallace park.

Harley "got his" yesterday.

The baseball season closes the 14th of this month and with it will end one of the greatest diversions many of the fair sex have had this summer. Miss Blanche Buckner, who is now resting up after a successful engagement in the "Isle of Spice" is now at the seashore, and will rest up during the month of September. Her mother has been with her nearly all summer in Boston, and Miss Buckner's many friends will be glad to know that she is enjoying good health and has become immensely popular in the east.

She will probably return to the "Isle of Spice" for a brief engagement in October, but this winter she intends to study abroad, and will go to Egypt before returning to the United States.

Mr. J. E. English Wants Cairo Team for Post Season Series.

Will Back the Top Notchers Against the Paducah Club.

Mr. J. E. English, the popular manager of The Kentucky, has developed into an enthusiastic baseball fan and will, if possible, buy the Cairo team for the season series games.

Mr. English stated today in regard to his intentions: "I am dickering for the management of the Cairo team but will not know what will be the outcome of my offer until Monday. The Cairo management has contracted with the team to play until September 14th and I agree to take the team, in case the Cairo management does not want to engineer the matter, pay the players myself and stand all expense, to play Paducah a post-season series of seven games for $250 a side, the winner of each game to take all gate receipts. Three games will be played at Cairo and three at Paducah and the team winning the most of these games will get the final game."

The Cairo team will disband after the 14th unless the games are arranged but even if they are, some members of the team will go home any way and Mr. English reserved the right to strengthen from the Kitty league if any of the Parasites do go home. The Paducah team is to remain as it is.

True for you, there's a treat in the crisp, nutty, delicate sweet taste of Grape-Nuts served with thick rich cream.

(Don't spoil the food by trying to cook it. That work is done and perfectly done at the factories.)

The cream should soften it a bit, but not enough to excuse the eater from at least a few good earnest "chews" for old Dame Nature sends rich blessings to the long chower. Of course the one with weak teeth can savor the food with milk down to a mush if necessary, but the good old Dame doesn't smile quite so cheerfully on them.

You know children and adults must use the teeth and grind freely to make them grow strong and to preserve them.

Then the act of chewing brings down the much needed saliva from the gums, and that helps amazingly in the digestion of foods of various kinds.

The saliva is not so much required with Grape-Nuts, for this food is pre-digested, that is the starch turned into a form of sugar in the process of making, and that helps give it the fascinating flavor.

Grape-Nuts people are healthy and enjoy good things. "There's a reason."

Theatrical Notes.

One of the diverting novelties of the local theatrical preliminary season will be A Georgia Camp Meeting, one of those musical cocktails compounded to please the eye and ear of the amusement loving public. A Georgia Camp Meeting is really a musical comedy, different entirely from all others, and is full of the very best sparkling and scintillating comedy, while the musical numbers, most of them original, are all those big affairs that have been the real success of all the big musical productions of recent years. The company is made up of the world's best colored talent and the chorus is without a peer. There are sandwiched in, a number of high class specialties which help, together with the other big features, make A Georgia Camp Meeting the greatest of all colored attractions. Tuesday night at The Kentucky.

"The Maid and the Mummy" which was the first big success of the New York season and which has had six very successful weeks at the New York Theatre will go on tour travels Monday and will come to Paducah. It is a strange condition of affairs that a big New York success is absolutely forced out on the road but in the case of "The Maid and the Mummy" it is due entirely to prior contracts which cannot be abrogated. The merry music and bright lines of this musical melange have on for it hosts of friends, and it is more than probable that wherever this work of Richard Carle and Robert Hood Bowers has been it will duplicate that success.

The McDonalds Stock Company will close here tonight after a successful week. The members are all clever artists and the return date of the company will be heralded with delight by the theater-going element.

LEGAL HOLIDAY

MONDAY WILL BE GIVEN OVER TO LABOR DAY CELEBRATION.

Monday, Labor Day, is a legal holiday, and there will be little business transacted in Paducah. The banks and postoffice will be closed, as on other legal holidays, and very few of the factories, if any, will try to operate. The laboring men will be out in force to participate in the big parade and the festivities at the park, and the prospects are for the biggest celebration in the city's history.

Moran of the Lady Letty

By

NORRIS.

topus," "The Fitz," Etc.

CHAPTER VIII.

"SINKING!" exclaimed Wilbur. Moran was already on her feet. "We'll have to beach her," she cried, "and we're six miles out! I'm y'r jib, mate!" The two set the jib, dyluz jib and stay-sails.

The fore and main sails were already drawing, and under all the spread of her canvas the Lady Letty raced back toward the shore.

But by the time she was within the head of the bay her stern had settled to such an extent that the forefoot was clear of the water, the bowsprit pointing high into the heavens. Moran was at the wheel, her scowl thicker than ever, her eyes measuring the strength of water that lay between the schooner and the shore.

"She'll never make it in the world," she muttered as she listened to the wash of the water in the cabin under her feet. In the hold empty barrels were rolling, knocking hollowly against each other. "We're in a bad way, mate."

"If it comes to that," returned Wilbur, surprised to see her thus easily downcast who was usually so indomitable. "If it comes to that, we can swim for it a couple of planks."

"Swim?" she echoed. "I'm not thinking of that. Of course we could swim."

"What then?"

"The sharks!"

Wilbur's teeth clicked sharply together. He could think of nothing to say.

As the water gained between decks the schooner's speed dwindled, and at the same time as she approached the shore the wind, shut off by the land, fell away. By this time the ocean was not four inches below the stern rail. Two miles away was the nearest sand spit. Wilbur broke out a distress signal on the foremast in the hope that Charlie and the deserters might send off the dory to their assistance, but the deserters were nowhere in sight.

"What became of the junk?" he demanded suddenly of Moran. She pointed to the westward with her head. "Still lying outside."

Twenty minutes passed. Once only Moran spoke.

"When she begins to go," she said, "she'll go with a rush. Jump pretty wide, or you'll get caught in the auction."

The two had given up all hope. Moran held grimly to the wheel as a mere matter of form. Wilbur stood at her side, his clinched fists thrust into his pockets. The eyes of both were fixed on the yellow line of the distant beach. By and by Moran turned to him with an odd smile.

"We're a strange pair to die together," she said. Wilbur met her eyes an instant, but, finding no reply, put his chin in the air as though he would have told her she might well say that.

"A strange pair to die together," Moran repeated. "But we can do that better than we could have"—she looked away from him—"could have lived together." She finished and smiled again.

"And yet," said Wilbur, "these last few weeks here on board the schooner we have been through a good deal together. I don't know," he went on humbly. "I don't know when I've been—when I've had—I've been happier than these last weeks. It is queer, isn't it? I know, of course, what you'll say. I've said it to myself often of late, I belong to the city and to my life there, and you—you belong to the ocean. I never knew a girl like you—never knew a girl could be like you. You don't know how extraordinary it all seems to me. You swear like a man, and you dress like a man, and I don't suppose you've ever been associated with other women, and you're strong—I know you are as strong as I am. You have no idea how different you are from the kind of girl I've known. Imagine my kind of girl standing up before Hoang and those enthroned ladies with their knives and hatchets. Maybe it's because you are so unlike my kind of girl that—things are as they are with me. I don't know. It's a queer situation. A month or so ago I was at a tea in San Francisco, and now I'm aboard a shark fishing schooner sinking in Magdalena bay, and I'm with a girl that—that I—that I—well, I'm with you, and, well, you know how it is—I might as well say I—I love you more than I imagined I ever could love a girl."

Moran's frown came back to her forehead.

"I don't like that kind of talk," she said. "I am not used to it, and I don't know how to take it. Believe me," she said, with a half laugh, "it's all wasted. I never could love a man. I'm not made for men."

"No," said Wilbur, "nor for other women either."

"Nor for other women either," Wilbur fell silent. In that instant he had a distinct vision of Moran's life and character, shimmering men and shimmer of women, a strange, lonely creature, solitary as the ocean whereon she lived; beautiful after her fashion; as yet without sex, proud, untamed, splendid in her savage, primal independence—a thing untouched and unsullied by civilization. She seemed to him some Bradamante, some mythical Amazon, some Valkyrie of the legends torn out of season, lost and unfamiliar in this end of the century time. Her purity was the purity of primitive gladiators. He could easily see how to appear only in the light of a humiliation—a degradation. And yet she could love, also how had he been able to love her? Wilbur found himself, even at that moment, wondering how the thing could be done—wondering how in just what note the intended cords would vibrate; just how she should be awakened one morning to find that she—Moran, sea rover, virgin unconquered, without law, without land, without sex—was, after all, a woman.

"Mate," she exclaimed of a sudden. "The barrels are keeping us up the empty barrels in the hold. Hold! We'll make land yet!"

It was true. The empty hogstons, destined for the storage of oil, had been forced up by the influx of the water to the roof of the hold and were acting as so many buoys. The schooner could sink no lower. An hour later, the quarter deck all awash, her bow thrown back into the air, listing horribly to starboard, the Lady Letty took ground on the shore of Magdalena bay at about the turn of the tide.

ABCESSES.

W. H. Harrison, Cleveland, Miss., writes, Aug. 15, 1899: "I want to say a word of praise for Bullard's Snow Liniment. I stepped on a nail, which caused the cords in my leg to contract and an abscess to rise in my knee, and the doctor told me that I would have a stiff leg, so one day I went to J. E. Lott's drug store (who is now in Denver, Colo.). He recommended a bottle of Snow Liniment; I got a 50c size, and it cured my leg. It is the best liniment in the world."

ABCESSES, with few exceptions, are indicative of constipation or debility. They may, however, result from blows or from foreign bodies introduced into the skin or flesh, such as splinters, thorns, etc.

CAN EMBALM

LOCAL UNDERTAKERS RECEIVE AUTHORITY FROM STATE BOARD.

Undertakers Fred Roth and M. Nance this morning received word from the State Board of Embalmers at Springfield, Ky., that they had passed the necessary examination, and were entitled under the new law to embalm bodies.

Certificates will not be issued until October 5th, but the notice received today entitles them to do any kind of embalming work.

Andy Watkins, the colored undertaker, also passed the examination and received like authority to do embalming work.

The last session of the legislature passed a law to govern embalming and as regards persons engaged in practicing embalming, the law became effective after the first day of September, it being unlawful for any one to embalm dead human bodies after that date without license.

The new law provides that the governor shall appoint a board of five members to be known as the state board of embalming of Kentucky and whose duties shall be to hold annual meetings, at least, to notify undertakers of such meetings, to receive applications for license to practice embalming and at the annual meeting to examine all applicants.

Section 7 of the law states: No person shall be granted a license who is not twenty-one years of age and has not practiced embalming dead human bodies for at least three years or had three years' practical instruction.

CIRCUS NO MORE

Harris' Nickle Plate Show Has Had Hard Luck Lately.

It Will Be Sold in the Near Future For Railroad Charges, It Is Said.

Harris' Nickle Plate Show, which has several times shown in Paducah in recent years, and with which Mr. T. Cooney, the Third street druggist, traveled for ten years, has had its day, from reports.

The remnant of Harris' Nickle Plate show is being held by the L. & N. railroad at Howell, near Evansville to satisfy a debt of $2,500 says the Hopkinsville New Era.

This consists of about fifteen horses, the same number of ponies, a snake and seven car loads of tents and other paraphernalia that constitutes a circus outfit. It was taken by the L. & N. to Howell from Sebes, where the show gave its last exhibition. Accompanying the remnant was Miss Harris, who for the past several years since the death of her husband has struggled to keep the circus going. Until recently she managed to pay all expenses, but finally was compelled to give up.

One animal after another from the menagerie was sold to help meet expenses, and one horse and pony and then another was also parted with. One show man or show woman after another was dismissed to lighten expenses, and when the L. & N. hauled the aggregation to Sebes last week the show's end was sealed, for the L. & N.'s bill was almost equal to value of the remaining property.

A losing date at Sebes caused Mrs. Harris to consent to have the remnant of her husband's former big show taken to Howell for disposal.

The horses and ponies were turned loose in Glen Park and the paraphernalia placed in Messmer's track until buyers put in their appearance. It is being figured on to dispose of most of the animals to Gentry's show, which shows in Evansville next Monday.

4,000 BOOKS

Almost the Entire Consignment Received for the Library.

The Listing Will Probably Require Sixty Days or Longer.

With the consignment of books which arrived here yesterday for the Carnegie library, the entire order placed with Warramaker several weeks ago has about been filled.

There are fully 4,000 books in the library now, 2,500 coming from Warramaker and the remainder being donated the library by individuals and the government.

The librarian, Miss Mamie Baymon, and assistant, and Miss Street, the expert cataloguer, are working hard listing the books and their job is anything but easy. They list the books not only by name and author, but by subject, scanning every book to get the subjects treated. The book is then listed with other subjects running along that line, by the author's name and by the title of the books. Many titles do not suggest the subject treated, making it necessary that the book be scanned and the subject gleaned. The cataloguer and assistants from present indications, will not get the entire lot listed inside of sixty days, but this does not mean the library will not be opened by that time.

After this first work of listing is completed, the other $100 order of books which will be made every 60 days, will be easy, more time being given the librarian in listing them.
